Commercialization of Matches

As football professionals and fellow businesspeople, we understand the importance of commercialization of pre-season and international matches. This strategic move is designed to help football clubs maximise revenue from these events.

By promoting events, hefc contributes to the global growth and popularity of football.

“FC Slovacko vs. AS Roma in Trentino, Italy. More than 3,000 visitors have made it one of the prestigious prep camps we’ve done.

It even topped the BBC coverage of one of our prep camps organised for Qatar U23, putting them against Liverpool Football Club U23.”
